

THIRD DISTRICT.

Rusk, Panola, and Shelby counties; Panola the returning county.

—John W. Motley, of Overton, Rusk county, was born in Autauga county, Alabama, September 3, 1836: came to Texas when ten years of age, and settled in Harrison county; graduated at the Medical Department of the University of Louisville, Kentucky, in the Spring of 1858, and located in Rusk county in May of the same year, where he has since practiced his profession, except during the late war, when he served as Surgeon in the Confederate States' army; was elected to the Senate on the fifteenth of February, 1876, as a Democrat, by a large majority over Dr. A. D. Lindsley, Republican. His term expires November, 1880.